Princeton University Celebrates Global Accessibility Awareness Day

Unlocking Access for Diverse Abilities

April 24, 1 PM – 4 PM @ 101 Friend Center

Keynote Speaker: Haben Girma

Haben Girma is a disability rights advocacy lawyer, a graduate of Harvard Law, a ballroom dancer, sports enthusiast, and she is deafblind. Haben will share the role accessibility played in reaching her goals in higher education.

Princeton Speakers
Jay Dominick, VP for Information Technology and CIO
Michelle Minter, Vice Provost for Institutional Equity & Diversity

Interaction Tables
NJ Commission for Blind • User Experience Office • Web Development Services • and more...

RSVP Required
https://goo.gl/9sHhXc

Sponsored By
Campus Conversation on Identities, Office of the Vice Provost for Institutional Equity and Diversity, Office of Information Technology and the Office of Disability Services, and the User Experience Office.